POSTKARTE.

GUERNSEY.—High Street, St. Peter-Port. The streets of St. Peter-Port are quaint and of an old-world appearance. Full of colour and animation is the picture of the High Street before us. St. Peter-Port is also traversed by a curious succession of long stair-ways, with cross lanes meeting at the "carrefours," leading up to other and still quainter and narrower steps, and to dark arched alleys.
